

AJ ARCHITECTS COOKIE POLICY

Introduction

We are committed to respecting and protecting any personal data you share with us, or that we get from partner organisations. We aim to be clear when we collect your data and about what we will do with it.

This policy describes how and why AJ Architects uses cookies on our website and how we protect your privacy.

Please read the policy carefully.

This policy is effective from 25-03-20.

How we use Cookies

Cookies are very small text files that are stored on your computer when you visit some websites.

We use cookies to help identify your computer so we can tailor your user experience, track shopping basket contents and remember where you are in the order process.

You can disable any cookies already stored on your computer, but these may stop our website from functioning properly.

The following is strictly necessary in the operation of our website.

This Website Will:

- Remember that you are logged in and that your session is secure.
- Remember that you have visited before to personalise your session.

The following are not strictly necessary, but are required to provide you with the best user experience and also to tell us which pages you find most interesting (anonymously).

Functional Cookies

This Website Will:

- Track the pages you visits via Google Analytics

Targeting Cookies

This Website Will:

- Allow you to share pages with social networks such as Facebook, Twitter and other social networks (If available)

This website will not:

Share any personally identifiable information with third parties.

By clicking to accept the use of the cookies outlined in the consent box, visitors agree to the setting of these cookies.

Most web browsers allow individual management of most cookies through the browser settings. If you would like to know more about cookies and how you can manage them, visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.
